The motto chosen for the diocese was "In the Cross of Christ I Glory" (based on Galatians chapter 6 verse 14). Its emblem includes a banyan tree - the tree under which the Scudder brothers prayed before they decided to begin their work in the area of Vellore.

	Hinduism – To understand the different Deities and the aspects they represent. To know about the Dharma and what Hindus believe about life and death.	Deities and scriptures –  Understand how most Hindus believe in the Supreme Spirit Brahman who is unlimited, all-knowing and the source of all life and that the different deities represented in the murtis, reflect different aspects of God. (The murtis usually represent individual deities. They are a focus for worship and are visual representations of God. Ultimately Hindus worship The One but prefer to do this through 'istadevas' - their own chosen names and forms of God, represented as icons or images with distinctive names and forms, e.g. Krishna or Sarasvati). Explore the symbolism of selected murtis and the stories associated with them; (e.g. Ganesha, Brahma, Vishnu, Shiva, Parvati, Durga, Sarasvati, Rama, Krishna) and what these tell about the nature of God. Dharma –  Explore the idea of karma (the law of cause and effect) and how this influences the way Hindus live their lives. See how this relates to reincarnation and the belief that the soul is eternal, so that when the body perishes the soul assumes a new body and experiences the fruits of actions in its previous life. Understand that it is possible for the soul to break free of this cycle and return to a state of bliss in a liberation known as moksha.	PT1 - Learning about religion and belief Make connections between different belief and practices of all religions. Make links and compare stories, beliefs and practices from different religions including differences and similarities. To understand and evaluate the diversity of belief in different religions, nationally and globally. Articulate detailed responses to ethical questions from the range of different religions and world views studied so far. PT2 – Responding to religion and worldviews To reflect and respond to the significance of meaning behind different beliefs and practices. Respond respectfully to a range of writings, stories, beliefs and practices. Humanism is founded on a naturalistic world view, rather than a supernatural view: thus evolution provides an account of how we come to be as we are biologically and socially, while meaning and purpose are the creations of our shared imagination, feeling and story-telling.
